To ensure your materials—from documents to videos and more—are inclusive and accessible to everyone in the Mason community, use the following best practices:

Choose accessible apps, resources, and platforms

Alternative text descriptions (i.e., alt text) for images

Synchronized, accurate captions for video

Good color contrast

Clear layouts and document structure
(e.g., headings, reading order)

Simple tables
(i.e., one row and one column for headers)

Descriptive hyperlinks

Sans serif fonts (e.g., Calibri, Arial)

Accessibility checkers
